

2010 Food Vendor Application
Saturday, May 15
10:00 a.m. – 8:00 p.m.
Downtown Concord

You are invited to apply for participation in Concord, North Carolina's annual Spring into Arts Festival as a food vendor. This outdoor event on Union Street in picturesque Historic Concord includes visual artists, musical performances, children's art activities and an array of food concessions.

Booth spaces are 10'x10'. You must provide your own tables, chairs, tent and power. Tents are suggested for protection from the elements and should be properly anchored to prevent damage to your space and those nearby.

Set up begins the day of the festival at 7:00 a.m. and must be completed by 9:00 a.m. Applicant is responsible for securing Cabarrus County Health Department Inspection & approval. Food vendors not showing proper permits will be excused from the event.

Food vendors will be grouped as follows: full food vendors will be located in one general area and snack food vendors will be located in another area. Snack food vendors will be limited to selling two items per vendor.

Non-profit food vendors must provide a letter stating that all profits will be donated to the non-profit group. Proof of non-profit status (501-c3) must be attached to this application.

Applications, once accepted, are non-refundable. The Spring Into Arts Festival reserved the right to deny any application. Please submit your payment, made payable to Concord Downtown Development Corp. (CDDC) no later than April 30, 2010.
